

Hi! My name is Susie Q. Babb. I am a one year old Pugasha. Okay...I hear you. You asked, "A what?" It's true! I am a Pugasha! That means that my mommy is a Lhasa Apso and my daddy is a Pug. Cool, huh? I began my happy life with Bobbi and William. You see, Bobbi has Cabana Babies and she is the forever owner of my mom, Holly-Go-Lightly. William has Beach Bum Pugs and he is the forever owner of my dad, Apricot Jack. Well, since Cabana Babies and Beach Bum Pugs work so closely together, I came along with my awesome brothers and sisters. We are Cabana Bums!

I got the bestest start in life ever!! Cabana Babies took such wonderful care of me! They loved me to pieces. I got lots of pats, hugs and cuddles. They played with me and talked to me, all the time. They always said the nicest things to me! I got to eat really good and healthy food, sleep in a very warm, cozy bed and someone was always loving on me. They also made sure that I had the right shots and worm medicine to keep me healthy and feeling fine. I had 8 weeks of this pampering and then my forever owners came along. I had to leave Cabana Babies, but I wasn't scared...not even one little bit! I knew that Bobbi would never, ever send me away with anyone who wasn't going to love, respect and care for me as good as she did. Plus, she gave me a blanket to take to my forever home that smelled just like her and the other Cabana Babies. I also feel very safe, knowing that, if for any reason, my forever owners couldn't take great care of me (dog forbid!), that I would be going back to live with Bobbi and my mom, Holly, and the rest of the Cabana Babies and Beach Bum Pugs gang. (Gives you the warm fuzzies, doesn't it?)

My forever people say that I am smart, playful, healthy, cuddly, loving and a real 'goof-ball'. (I hope being a goof-ball is a good thing.) They say that I smile a lot! I have a forever sister, too. Her name is Belle and she is a Border Collie. (She thinks she is sooooo doggone smart!) Still, she has taught me how to play on the beach, chase a tennis ball and be a good beach citizen. (I am a fast learner!) The beach is so much fun!! All my forever people have to do is say the word 'beach' and I get all excited and begin to 'talk' about going! Belle and I run and run and run, chasing each other and the tennis ball. Sometimes we even meet other cool dogs and their forever owners to play with on the beach. I get along with all nice dogs and forever owners. It is quite a workout! When we get back home, I sleep and sleep...resting up for the next day when we get to go back to the beach.

Wherever I go, human people look at me...they always smile and give me a lot of attention. For some reason, looking at me makes human people happy. (They say it has something to do with my face...whatever that means.) I live in Ocean Shores and I get a lot of attention at Ace Hardware, Anchor Bank, the liquor store, the post office and at the Paw Patch, where I get my toenails trimmed. I can always look forward to a dog biscuit or treat, when I go into any of those places. The folks there always say 'hi' to ME before they say 'hi' to my forever owners.

Something else very exciting is happening! My forever owner's Mom and Dad are getting a Lhasa Apso puppy from Cabana Babies. She is my sister, as we both have Holly-Go-Lightly as our mom! Panda Bear is an 8 week old puppy and my grandma and grandpa are very excited! Me, too! Grandma and Grandpa are very nice people and will give Panda Bear (my sister!) a terrific and loving home. (I know that will all my heart, because Bobbi checked it all out beforehand.) Panda Bear is a very cute, sweet, happy and healthy little puppy and she's not gonna be scared, either! Plus, we will get to play together a lot. Really cool!

Okay. That's my story and I am stickin' to it! (Time to hit-the-hay...which means I jump up on my forever owner's bed and cuddle in for the night.) If you want a great forever doggie like me, and you want to provide a caring, loving and respectful forever home for a Lhasa Apso, a Yorkie, a Pug or even, possibly a Cabana Bum like me, then I would suggest that you talk to the loving and smart doggie people at Cabana Babies or Beach Bum Pugs. They are the bestest puppy people in the whole doggone world! They talk dog!! (Along with my forever owners, of course.) And, if you don't believe me, just ask my forever owners, Tom and Lynn Babb. I know that they can back up my story and tell you even more great stuff!!!
